FIVE-STEPS TOWARD MORE INTIMACY

(Genesis 2:24)

God's Plan for marriage calls for two people to become one in an intimate relationship. Selfish desires, insecurities, and fears can keep us from developing a completely satisfying and deeply intimate partnership. This one or two day program leads couples through five key areas of intimacy, and teaches intimacy-building techniques that help build a stronger, God - centered marriage
TOGETHER.

EMBRACING DIFFERENCES TO CONQUER CONFLICT

(Ephesians 4:1-3)

Conflict can destroy the peace and can even threaten the existence of a marriage. God desires all couples to grow closer to each other even through their conflicts by learning how to embrace differences and use techniques that help us respond rather than react during discord. This nine-hour program teaches 50 ways to conquer conflict by actually accepting and encouraging each other's special uniqueness.

FAMOUS LOVERS in the BIBLE

(I Corinthians 7 : 27 and 28)

Relationship struggles are not new. Adam and Eve, David and Bathsheba, Joseph and Mary all knew how difficult relationships could be. Each couple knew pain and struggles similar to our own. And we have a written record of their rewards and consequences. When we study these and other prominent couples in the Bible – their sins, their passions, and their pain – we can glean relationship insights that will transcend time.

BUILDING A "TEAM" MARRIAGE THAT CAN GO THE DISTANCE

(I Corinthians 12:7, 19, 27)

Sports teams function best when each person knows their position, executes their duties, and sticks to the known game plan. If we desire to be on a winning team in our marriage, we do what other winning teams do to succeed. It is not "my plan" for the marriage or "your plan" ... it's when we adopt God's Plan as "our plan" for the "team" that our marriage will thrive.
God's Plan is the best plan.

CREATE LOVING RELATIONSHIPS

(John 13:34)

This three-day retreat is an overview of the important characteristics that make a successful marriage. Daily, our personal attitudes, behaviors, choices, & decisions spell success or failure. When we're aware of and then implement more appropriate communication & listening skills, conflict resolution, deeper intimacy builders, and other important elements, our marriage will not only survive - it will thrive.

GO FOR THE GOLD IN YOUR MARRIAGE

(I Corinthians 9:24)

This three-hour program is set up as an evening "Date Night" program that uses an Olympic theme. It is a mixture of humorous and poignant presentations that focus on adopting a "winning team" spirit in marriage and then developing a game plan that will lead to the marriage and each spouse becoming the best they can be. At the end of the night, couples will be "high-fiving" and cheering,
GO TEAM GO!!
